

DEVELOPING A CHAMPION MINDSET: A LINKS & LEARNING EXPERIENCE

The goal of this experience is to help you play better golf by exposing you to principles and tools that will also apply to your business and personal life.

In addition we, will:

- Help you step back and get clear on what we want you to be thinking, feeling and doing in a golf setting as well as in a high stake business setting
- Introduce and help you master specific tools you can use to become a more natural, effective leader. You will have an opportunity to not only do mental training, but connect the mind to the body to increase your effectiveness, especially under stressful situation
- Demonstrate how this program can create a way to network

DEVELOPING A CHAMPION MINDSET: A LINKS & LEARNING EXPERIENCE

Golf in many ways is a microcosm of business and life in general.

Wouldn't be great if you could combine playing better golf and becoming a better business owner/leader and family leader?
