The Market for Ideas Reading Groups provide a forum for students to engage with key texts in economics and related disciplines with a cohort of their peers under the guidance of a Bagwell Center affiliated faculty member. Each reading group will meet for a total of four hours per semester to discuss readings assigned by the faculty member.

Student participants will receive the assigned reading materials, plus a $200 honorarium for each reading group completed (each individual student can potentially participate in up to 3 reading groups).

REQUIREMENTS:

- Remain enrolled as a student in good standing at Kennesaw State University throughout their participation in the Market for Ideas Reading Groups.
- Attend and actively participate in all scheduled programming.
- Arrive on time and prepared for each meeting, having carefully read any assigned readings in advance
- Participants are also encouraged to attend Bagwell Center events and to build relationships with other participants and Bagwell Center faculty.
