Competitive Grant Award (2021)

This award is to recognize top quality research completed by faculty to meet expectations of competitive grants received from esteemed organizations such as the National Science Foundation, National Institute of Health, Department of Homeland Security, professional organizations in a discipline such as The Institute of Internal Auditors, Institute of Management Accountants and so on. The winners will have their research featured in the Coles Research Magazine.

Eligibility:
Any Coles College full-time regular faculty member (lecturer, tenured or tenure-track).

Award:
$1,000 cash award.

Criteria:

1. Faculty members may submit one research project that received successful funding from a competitive external grant over the past three years.

2. Faculty are required to submit a narrative that addresses the following: (1) name of granting body, (2) date grant received, (3) title of research/project, and (4) significance of the research/project. Faculty may want to address the prestige of the granting body and the significant contributions made by the research project.

The submitted narrative is limited to a maximum of two pages, double-spaced, with 12-point font and one-inch margins. Submissions are due Friday, January 15, 2021 by 5:00 pm and should be e-mailed to aroy1@kennesaw.edu.
