The tentative schedule is provided as an aid for course planning. It is a listing of the most likely offerings during the upcoming several semesters. Although the discrepancies will be relatively few, class offerings are dependent on availability of rooms and instructors and sufficient student interest. This tentative schedule is not to be viewed as a contract. Although occasionally a projected class may not be offered, it is more likely that classes in addition to those projected will be offered.

D = Class start time will be prior to 5:00 pm.

N/O = Class will either be offered online or in the evening (5:00 pm or later).
